Skills for Success

in online learning $25.00

In education today, taking a course online will be a necessity for many students. How can we increase their chances of success? "Skills for Success in Online Learning" is designed to help students decide whether this unique learning environment is something they would like to try. It is designed to help them become comfortable in the web-based classroom before they begin their online journey.

Students who take this course will:

- Navigate Blackboard platform through interactive tutorial
- Send e-mail with attachments
- Post and respond to discussion board topics
- Deliver and retrieve documents electronically
- Effectively manage their time in a virtual environment
- Practice expected online behavior
- Take an online practice test
- Receive tips on how to be a successful online student
